AMO Matters

Municipal governments need to be informed about the Strategy for a Waste-Free Ontario, as the landscape is changing. Contact acrawford@amo.on.ca for access to AMO's waste diversion portal, and check our website regularly for updates.

Federal Matters

The federal Minister of Transportation, the Hon. Marc Garneau, launched a review of the Railways Safety Act (RSA) earlier this year. The Review Panel is seeking input from communities and individuals on railway safety issues. To participate, municipalities and residents can access the RSA consultation portal by September 22, 2017.

AMO, LAS and ROMA Events

LAS and MFOA are pleased to offer five one-day Investment Basics Workshops across the province, with updated content to help you develop your understanding of this important topic.

LAS

Municipal staff often fill a wide range of jobs and responsibilities, leaving little time to be proactive or investigate operational efficiencies. That's precisely why LAS was created in 1992. Discover the many ways in which LAS assists Ontario municipalities, and where we draw inspiration from. Your municipality might hold the key to the next new LAS service!

Municipal Wire*

The Municipal Natural Assets Initiative pilot project is calling for second-round applications by August 28, 2017. Natural assets such as wetlands provide environmental services and enhance outcomes such as cleaner air and water for local residents. Municipalities interested in participating should contact the program coordinator.

Careers
